MEETING TO-NIGHT.

An important meeting of citizens will be held at the Court House this evening, for the purpose of organizing a Citizens' Protective Union. If any community ever needed such an organization, Poché needs it now. Murders, assassinations and deadly assaults have been of frequent occurrence, and the perpetrators have gone unpunished. It seems as if the law has been powerless, and murderers who deserved the utmost rigor of the law, are breathing the free air of heaven indifferent to the laws they have violated or the community which they have outraged. We understand that the movement towards ferreting out crime will be only in reference to events which have transpired since the 25th of last month, or which may transpire in the future. A better public opinion must prevail here, if the people would be regarded abroad as anything else than lawless brigands. We hope to see our best citizens at the meeting to-night. Let calm deliberations prevail, and let everything be lost sight of but the adoption of suitable measures to arrest the carnival of blood which has too long existed in this community, and which has given to Poché the name of the wickedest place on the Pacific coast. The good and the true of our town must organize for their own protection, or else abandon the town to the murderers and ruffians who infest it. At present we know of at least one worthy citizen whose life has been threatened, and who has been shot down, his murderers would have no difficulty in proving an alibi by those who would not scruple to swear falsely. We must have better order here, and to secure that end the people themselves must take the initiative, and by prompt and decisive action teach the outlaws who flaunt their villainies in the faces of decent people, that they must hunt some other field of operations.

THE HOLIDAYS OVER.

The holidays are over, and the people have settled to a realization of the fact that they have entered upon the duties of another year. It is earnestly to be hoped that the bright and pleasant weather which signalized the first business day of the new year, is omenous of prosperity and progress for the year upon which we have just entered. We look forward with pleasing anticipations of great material advancement during the year. The mines in the camp, we are confident, will be developed to a greater extent than during any previous twelvemonth. Unless we are greatly mistaken, the close of the present year will see Poché connected by iron bands with Salt Lake City on the east, Elko on the north, and Palisade on the west, with the probability of connection with the 25th parallel road on the south. The coal and iron of Western Utah will, during the present year, be brought into use, and made to add wealth to this section of the country. The general aspect for the new year is cheerful, and we look hopefully to a year of general prosperity.

Joseph A. Cappriss, a pioneer resident of this city, died last evening at San Rafael, where he had been residing for the benefit of his health. The cause of death was consumption. Deceased was a native of Baltimore, one of the organizers of the "Old Six," the Monumental, was at one time Chief Engineer of the Fire Department of this city, and died a member of the exempt Association.—[S. F. Republican, December 27.]

Mr. Cappriss is known to not a few of our people, and all will regret to hear of his death. He was of an exceedingly jocular nature, and was the life of every company in which he mingled.

The Supreme Court of California recently rendered an important decision affirming, in effect, the constitutionality of the Legal Tender Act of Congress. Chief Justice Wallace dissented in toto; Justice Crockett concurred in the conclusions of the majority, but not in the reasoning by which those conclusions were reached.

JOHN EGBERT died at Kaysville, Utah, on the 10th ult., from injuries received by a fall. He was 94 years and 5 months old. He united with the Mormon Church in 1832; passed through all the Mormon vicissitudes of fortune in Missouri and Illinois, and came to Utah in 1848.

At Salt Lake, James Langhley was bound over in the sum of $5,000, on a charge of arson, in setting fire to the Winder property.

Mrs. Griffiths, who was shot some weeks since by her husband, died at Salt Lake a few days ago.

PNEUMONIA.—The number of cases of pneumonia in the city is growing alarming; the weather is peculiarly fitted for catching bad colds which leads to it, and our citizens cannot be too careful about unduly exposing their persons.—[Salt Lake Mining Journal.]

WASHINGTON CORRESPONDENCE.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Dec. 22, 1872.

GOAT ISLAND.

Senator Stewart called up the bill which passed the House of Representatives last spring, ceding Goat Island to the Central Pacific Railroad for terminal purposes. He stated that his object was merely to have the subject referred to a committee, and that it was not his desire to discuss the question of what committee it should be assigned to. Senator Cole, who had moved, last spring, the reference of this matter to the Committee on Military Affairs, objected to a discussion on the subject for the present; he expected a report from the Engineer Department soon, in relation to the matter, and when that was before the Senate, it would be the proper time to refer the bill. Mr. Stewart, however, is evidently bent on having the bill referred to the Pacific Railroad Committee, of which he is Chairman, and gave notice that he would call the matter up whenever opportunity presented. The next day, sure enough, he called for "H. R. 1553," but another Senator interposed an objection, and his first attempt at springing the game is recorded as a failure. After the holidays are over, he may be more successful. It is hard to beat an old sport when he sets his traps to win!

POWER OF CONGRESS OVER RAILROADS.

Senator Stewart introduced a resolution last week, which passed the Senate without opposition, directing the Judiciary Committee to inquire how far Congress is authorized to regulate the fare and transportation upon railroads between the States, under that provision of the Constitution which authorizes Congress to regulate commerce between the States, and to report by bill or otherwise.

Another resolution of his, passed at the same time, directed inquiry by the same Committee as to the power of Congress to authorize the construction and operation of railroads passing into or through two or more States.

THE STATE OF COLORADO.

The House Committee on Territories have considered and voted to report favorably upon a bill for the admission of Colorado into the Union of the States. Jones, Delegate from Wyoming, argued against the approval of that clause in the bill providing for extending the northern boundary of Colorado so as to include one and a half degrees of the Territory he represents. While the Committee is in favor of abolishing Wyoming, and dividing her lands equally between Colorado and Dakota, it was deemed advisable to strike out the clause above mentioned, lest it should prove so burdensome to the bill as to prevent its passage. An attempt, however, will be made to accomplish this object by an amendment to the bill when it comes before the House.

DANGEROUS ILLNESS OF ARCHBISHOP BAYLEY.

I sincerely regret to inform your Catholic readers that the distinguished Archbishop of Baltimore is in a precarious state of health. He has been quite ill for some weeks past, and serious apprehensions are beginning to be felt by his friends. He is now suffering from Bright's disease of the kidneys, which so frequently proves fatal. It is to be hoped that his life may be spared to the Church of which he is a valued teacher.

CONGRESSIONAL ITEMS.

The long pending French Spoilation bill has been before the Senate during the week, and Senator Cameron made a lengthy speech in favor of the measure. Senator Sherman of Ohio answered with a powerful argument in opposition to the bill.

A special committee of seven has been appointed to consider and report upon the subject of Internal Improvements.

The Louisiana troubles have prompted a resolution of inquiry in the House, and the official view of the subject will soon be given to Congress.

Female Suffrage has received a blow from Senator Edmunds, Chairman of the Judiciary Committee, who reported adversely on the subject.

The temperance men are making an earnest effort to induce Congress to pass a prohibitive or restrictive Temperance Law for the District of Columbia and the Territories. Senator Sherman has introduced the "Ohio enactment" on the subject, which makes dealers responsible for all damages done by intoxicating drinks.

A postal telegraph bill has been reported in both Houses of Congress.

On the subject of Senator Sumner's resolution to strike from the Army Register and Regimental colors the names of battles in the late war, the House has adopted a proposition to the effect that the unity of the nation will be strengthened by keeping fresh and green the remembrances of the war.

There was a lively discussion in the House on Tuesday on a proposition to appropriate $100,000 to aid in securing a representation of American Industrial interests in the Vienna Exposition.

A committee is in contemplation to look into political affairs in Arkansas, but no action will be taken until after the holidays.

The death of Hon. Garrett Davis, late Senator from Kentucky, was announced in the Senate and House on Wednesday, and appropriate tributes were paid to his memory, of which 9,000 copies will be published and handsomely bound.

Telegraphic Dispatches.

SPECIAL TO THE POCHE DAILY RECORD

PACIFIC COAST.

San Francisco, Jan. 2, 1873.—Henry Hill, a sailor, was shot last night by Robert O'Mally, mate of the Lucy. The ball took effect in the forehead. The wounded man was sent to the hospital. O'Mally was arrested.

New Year's customs were generally observed yesterday, although the weather was stormy and disagreeable.

The colored people celebrated Emancipation Day with much enthusiasm, closing their festivities with a grand ball at Pacific Hall.

From the sale of tickets, and subscriptions where no tickets were taken, the family of Col. Evans will receive from the recent benefit about $800.

The old employees of the Pacific Mail Co. are exceedingly anxious to know what changes will be made by Mr. Holman, the new agent. It is thought there will be a general revolution amongst them.

San Francisco, Jan. 2.—An accident to the press prevented the issuing of the first edition of the Bulletin this evening, and delayed the second several hours.

To-day a process was issued by the U. S. District Court against the treasurer of the Sacramento, which was supposed to be in the Bank of California, but the officers found it had been paid over to the parties to whom it belonged. None of it was in the bank.

San Jose, Jan. 2.—The Santa Clara Valley Agricultural Society held its annual election of officers to-day.

Jesse Hamilton, a farmer living four miles south of here, sustained a fracture of the left leg by a kick from a horse, on Tuesday.

Santa Barbara, Jan. 2.—Quite a sensation was created here yesterday morning, by a statement in the Times that scarlet fever is prevalent here. A fever of a mild type, accompanied by a slight eruption, but not contagious, has been somewhat prevalent. No case has proved fatal so far as can be learned.

Santa Barbara, Jan. 2.—Workmen are hard at work on the new hotel, adjusting furniture, laying carpets, etc. The hotel is expected to be open to the public in about 10 days.

EASTERN.

New York, Jan. 1, 1873.—A fire which totally destroyed the 5th Avenue Theater commenced about 4 o'clock p. m. Smoke was first discovered ascending from near the rear of the theater, although fire must have started long before that time somewhere in the lower portions of the building. The theater adjoins the 5th Avenue Hotel, on the 24th street side. It is the first building west on that street toward 6th Avenue. About 15 minutes after the discovery of the fire, the whole structure was ablaze in all quarters, burning like so much straw. The flames ascended with great fierceness, and lit up the surrounding squares as though they emanated from a well arranged bonfire. There seemed to be considerable delay in the arrival of the fire department, as the fire was under way fully 15 minutes before the engines arrived. There was great excitement at the time in 5th Avenue Hotel, as it was feared the fire would extend to that edifice. Nothing but the greatest exertions saved the hotel from ruin. The engines at 7 o'clock were still playing on the ruins.

The fall of Wm. H. Mair's paper mills, in Brooklyn, on Tuesday night, caused a damage to that building of $15,000. A portion of it crashed in the roof of F. A. Smith's flour mill, adjoining, destroying 14 wagons and trucks, and killing two horses and injuring several others. The damage to the flour mills is $10,000. The weight of snow on the roof of the paper mill caused the settling of the frame of the building.

The custom of making New Year's calls was generally observed in the city and different neighborhoods, callers mostly making the rounds in sleighs. The day passed off quietly.

By the falling of some scaffolding at the Liberty Copper Mills, Frederick Co., Md., yesterday, 26 miners were precipitated several hundred feet into the pit. Eight were seriously injured.

A. T. Stewart has presented $1,000 to the fund for disabled firemen.

A New Orleans dispatch says it is reported there that several of Warmouth's tax collectors have fled, one named Blanchard, being a defaulter for $30,000. It is also rumored that there will be an attempt made to inaugurate the McEnery officials on the 9th inst. Trouble is anticipated.

Augusta, Me., Jan. 2.—At a caucus of the Republican members of the Legislature, yesterday, all the old officers were renominated except the Attorney General, instead of whom H. Plaiside was selected.

Bangor, Jan. 2.—The present long continued cold weather in this section is unprecedented in the last 3 years.

New York, Jan. 2.—Some 1,800 emigrants have arrived at Castle Garden. The number is unprecedented for this inclement season. The Germans and Italians generally are reported as having suffered intensely throughout the voyage from cold.

The total loss by the burning of the 5th Avenue Theater reaches from $350,000 to $300,000. The treasurer, with great difficulty, managed to save the receipts of the matinee, but failed to rescue the valuables in the safe. The 5th Avenue Hotel was damaged $5,000. Augustin Doyle, the lessee of the theater, lost $50,000, and was wholly uninsured.

Cincinnati, Jan. 2.—At Springfield, 40 years old, was brutally murdered by her drunken husband.

St. Louis, Jan. 2.—Phillip Ballinger, member of the Lutheran Church, was arrested yesterday, charged with incest with his own daughter, 18 years old. The charge is made by the daughter, but is stoutly denied by the father.

Chicago, Jan. 2.—A heavy rain storm prevailed here and throughout the West and East. From Toledo to Detroit the telegraph wires are working very hard or not at all.

Gov. Palmer has resented McNulta, the wife murderer, who was to be hanged at Peoria to-morrow, for 35 days. All the counsel applied to the Supreme Court for a supersedeas.

New York, Jan. 2.—In the Stokes case to-day, Jennie Turner testified to a lady picking up a pistol on the stairs at the time of the murder, and giving it to a gentleman.

FOREIGN.

London, Jan. 2.—The steamer Minnesota arrived on Tuesday last. When 5 days out from New York, 150 bales of cotton took fire and were thrown overboard.

The Russian Government frankly communicated to the English Government its plan of campaign in Central Asia.

The Carson Appeal, in an editorial article, urges the abolition of the death penalty.
